

NIGHTFORCE™

Nightforce Optics has the following openings available at the Orofino, ID location:

- Production Assembly Technician -- Responsible for working with and assembling high quality products. Must be able to work with small components with an exceptional level of accuracy and detail. Must be willing and available to work any shift. Hourly rate is $11.50 per hour. The application period will end on March 5, 2012.

All job offers are contingent upon passing pre-employment requirements, including aptitude testing, a drug screen and a criminal background check. After successful completion of the introductory period, a comprehensive benefits package is available to full time employees.

Interested individuals may see the complete description for each opening and acquire application materials online at www.labor.idaho.gov -- click on Search for a Job > Browse Jobs and then enter Nightforce in the Keyword box.

Questions regarding the application process can be answered by calling 208-476-5506 or via e-mail at orofinomail@labor.idaho.gov.

Job descriptions may also be found for all current openings on <http://lewiston.craigslist.org> by searching for Nightforce in the jobs category.

Nightforce Optics is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Qualified females and minorities are encouraged to apply.

BENEFIT PLAN AT NIGHTFORCE OPTICS:

Benefits for full time employees after completing the introductory period at Nightforce Optics currently include medical, dental and vision coverage, prescription drug plan, paid vacation and holidays, life insurance, short-term and long-term disability benefits, flexible spending accounts for healthcare and dependent care expenses and an employee assistance program.